

ω/t₀ = 0.2–10 and φ = 0–π, with both endpoints included; all 30,000 parameter points are independently evolved.
Each row shares one color scale across the three static references. No interpolation or static subtraction is used.
Finite-size participation indicators alone do not establish a localization phase transition.